

University Conference Group Behavioral Agreement

All conference guests (adults & youths) are expected to comply with any and all applicable University regulations and policies, all applicable local, state, and federal laws. Failure to comply with any of the above may result in the individual being sent home and possible criminal penalties (if applicable). User Staff are expected to take appropriate measure to respond and resolve violations of any of these rules, including calling the University Police. If conference guests fail to comply with these behavioral standards or laws, including but not limited to those listed below, the guests or staff members may be removed from the residence halls and may also cause the entire event to be terminated.

1. Alcohol

- A. The use, possession and distribution of alcoholic beverages is not allowed in the Residence Halls or Dining Room. Conference staff and guests, even if over 21, are not authorized to drink alcoholic beverages in the Residence Halls.
- B. Public intoxication is prohibited. Further, it is expected that staff and guests will not be returning to the Hall intoxicated.

2. Assisting with a rule violation. Assisting in the violation of any applicable University regulation, policy, local, state, and/or federal law is prohibited.

3. Damage, loss, vandalism, or tampering with personal or university property. Damage, vandalism, or tampering with the property of the University or another resident is prohibited. This includes unauthorized moving and/or modification of University property.

4. Dining Room regulations.

- A. Conference Meal card is required for entrance to the dining room. Dining room privileges are non-transferable. A card used by anyone other than owner will be confiscated.
- B. One entrée per time through serving lines. Unlimited visits to serving lines during visit.
- C. Throwing food or objects in the dining room is prohibited. Causing food to be thrown is also prohibited.
